

THE OLD GUARD NEWS

Volume 77, Number 1 January 2006

Under New Management

This is the first issue of our NAFYR newsletter with a new editor in almost a decade. The first thing we want to do is thank Bob and Bee Rule for nine years of dedicated service as editor and proofreader of this publication. It is not an easy task to put out eight pages of quality copy, month after month for as long as they have. THANK YOU FOR A JOB WELL DONE!

Since Bob was hanging up his green eyeshade and blue pencil, our officers thought it would be a good time to talk about the purpose of our newsletter and determine if any changes could or should be made.

A task force was assembled at the recent reunion in the Twin Cities. Present for that meeting were: Hank Bagelmann, presiding, Craig Altschul, Stew Brown, Dottie Eley, Peter Gabel, Rich Hill, Chuck Holmes, Clark Koechel, Jim Lipscomb, Doug McNeel, Al Olson, Betty Olson, Bob Rule, Peggy Simmons and Don Zerwer.

Many topics were discussed. Among them were: "change the name", "change the format", "send it via email", "specialized issues", "who is our audience", and many more. The gist of the meeting was that if we were going to make changes, now would be the time to do it. This could also be a time to experiment with any or all of the above discussion topics. So, they pretty much gave the new editor carte blanche.

In the next few issues we will try some different things, not the least of which will be a new look. We hope you will let us know how we are doing and will even get involved by contributing news and articles that will be of interest to your fellow retirees.

Name the Newsletter Contest

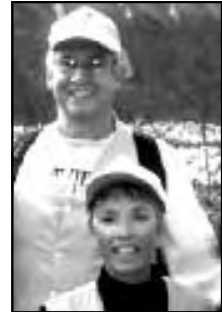

Here is your first chance to get involved in the changes being made at "The Old Guard News". One of the suggestions from the Task Force in Minnesota was to change the name of the newsletter. To get a new name, we are going to run a contest. The rules are simple . . . send your entry to: Bill Moss, 7326 East Monte Vista Road, Scottsdale, AZ 85257 or email it to: wbmclm@aol.com .

The deadline for entries will be February 1 and the winner will be announced in the March issue.

A committee has been named to select the winner. Serving on that committee are: Chuck Swineford, Bob Shelton, Jane West, Ken Mackeracher and the Editor.

There are no prizes, just the satisfaction of knowing that you were responsible for naming the newsletter. Of course, we will publish the name of the winner in the newly named newsletter.

International Senior Service Corp Sends Four to China

Peg Andrews, ISSC Coordinator

The International Senior Service Corps will have Ray and Muriel Jacoby volunteering in Beijing, China for a second tour of duty. This will give them an opportunity to continue with some of the instruction they started two years ago. Ray is also trying to set up an Internship with Springfield College students and the Beijing YMCA. He will supervise the student if the program gets started this year. Ray is working to set this up as a continuing internship for Springfield College.

ISSC is already beginning a search for a couple to continue with the Beijing work by volunteering for six months beginning in October 2006.

Larry and Carole Lieving have been volunteering in Chengdu since October 2005. They will be continuing work begun by Gene Sacha and Jeanne Shallman in 2002.

Give Peg a call at 623-546-9514 or send a resume to 14936 Alpaca Drive, Sun City West, AZ 85375 or email to: pandrews1@cox.net if you are interested in volunteering.

Your questions on serving in Beijing in 2006 can be answered by Peg Andrews or Ray Jacoby. This is an experience of a lifetime.

NAFYR members make the ISSC program possible through their annual donations to YMCA World Service.

“We decided to “throw caution to the wind”, and volunteer to come.”

A Letter from the Lievings . . .

DEAR FELLOW RETIREES...Ni hao!

To say that China is a most interesting country is a definite understatement! My wife and I were very hesitant as we began inquiring about the six-month visit to China. We learned that it would require us to teach conversational English to the YMCA staff and to the first through third graders at a rural, YMCA sponsored elementary school. After many questions to YMCA folks who had volunteered for this assignment, we decided to "throw caution to the wind", and volunteer to come...even though it was for six whole months, we didn't know any Chinese, and we would be in Chengdu, (a city of 10 million people that no one had even heard of), where very few people spoke English! Chengdu is near the mountains and gets fairly cold, (we live in Florida), but we packed all the warm clothes we could find, and before we knew it, we were on the 18 hour flight to China.

Wow! We are really glad we came. The YMCA staff are very gracious and caring people. In fact, all the Chinese people we meet are very friendly. Many people as we walk or ride the busy streets, say, "Hello". However, when we respond in English, they are quiet. "Hello" is the only word most people know. Not only are we helping the YMCA staff and the school students learn English, we are making, (and I will borrow a Rotary International term), a little "Pocket of Peace" here in China. We hope our getting to know and appreciate the Chinese people and them getting to know more about the "Big Americans", will help the pocket grow.

I would strongly urge any couple who would be slightly interested about volunteering to get more information. It is one of the greatest adventures that we have ever had.

From the President . . .

January – what a great month! A time for thinking about what you would like to do that, perhaps, didn't get done in 2005. Maybe a new adventure, a trip you always wanted to take, a new skill, finding a way to take a stroke or two off your golf game, or adding a stroke or two to your life's time clock by maintaining a healthy lifestyle. January gives us all another chance!

We're kicking off the New Year with our new editor, Bill Moss, at the helm of the OGN. This is Bill's first issue and you may notice a difference or two. Stay tuned, this could go on for a while as he settles into the editor's chair. Bill and his wife Charlotte make their home in Scottsdale, Arizona. The NAFYR Board members, as well as the leadership from the chapters, look forward to working with Bill in the years ahead.

Later in the month, Bob Rule and the F. William Stahl Award Selection Committee will be notifying the Chapter leaders of the opportunity to nominate an individual as the 2006 Stahl Honoree. Nominees "must have made a significant contribution toward the advancement of professional knowledge and skills through written expression..." Frank Kiehne was the 2005 Honoree.

Two key task forces are beginning their work. One is focused on a proposed member recognitions program and is led by Vice President-West, Betty Olson. Serving on the task force are Darwin Haines, Mary Hanzlik, Jack Hawkins, Rich Hill, Pres Johnson, Zera Mackie and Scotty Washburn.

The second task force is working on the question of membership – what is it to be a NAFYR member? Past President Jim Lipscomb is the task force leader with Vice President-East, Doug McNeel as a resource carrying forward the work Phil Wortman initiated in the past biennium. This is work that will shape our future.

Make a note of Doug McNeel's (VP-East) new address in the listing of Board members. Doug's phone and e-mail remain the same.

Live the spirit of 17:21...

Canadian YMCA War Services

A dedication ceremony for eight new stained glass windows commemorating Canadians, who served in the First and Second World Wars, was held in the Great Hall of the University of Toronto's Hart House recently. The dedication took place in the presence of The Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, The Honourable James K. Bartleman.

One of the windows (see photo on right) honours the Auxiliary Services of the Second World War and includes the logos of the YMCA, the Royal Canadian Legion, the Canadian Red Cross, the Knights of Columbus, and the Salvation Army. All of these organizations provided support and comfort to the forces.

Among the guests representing the YMCA were Jack Pearse, President of Copeland Budge and a veteran of WWII; Janet Emmett, VP, Association Services & Leadership Development at YMCA Canada; and Ian Fleming, Archivist at YMCA Canada.

The windows are located in the Soldiers' Tower Stairwell of the Honour at Hart House at the University of Toronto.

Correction: In the November issue of OGN the article on Young Professionals Abroad, should have named Rebecca and Joel Wright (not Wallace.)

Ressler Book Republished

Ted Ressler, a former camp executive is republishing a book that he wrote in 1956. The book was originally authorized by the Museum of the American Indian for its accuracy in customs, rituals and dress.

"Whispers In The Forest" is a collection of American Indian tales for preteen boys and girls. The stories are based upon Indian lore and customs. Many of the traditional stories were told him by his Indian friends who were, descendants of the braves who first recounted them many generations ago. Both the original and the traditional tales are set down within the general context of Indian history, but without any pretense that the events actually took place.

Originally published by Association Press, the book is now only available for purchase from Ted directly. The cost of the book is $12.95 plus $4 for shipping and handling. You can contact Ted by phone at 302-697-1271 or email him at: TressAARP@AOL.COM.

Claire Chennault of the Flying Tigers was once a "YMCA Athletic Director" as depicted in the book on his life titled, CHENNAULT— Giving Wings to the Tiger, by Martha Byrd.

Stew Brown Honored

Stew Brown, a 1955 George Williams College graduate received Aurora University's GWC Distinguished Alumni award at the annual homecoming 50th reunion and awards banquet.

Brown was among four alumni of GWC honored for their lifetime career achievements. His award was presented by Sandra Alcorn (see photo on right), AU research fellow and former dean of the School of Social Work.

Alcorn said of Brown, "To understand the YMCA principles of healthy spirit, mind and body, you need look no further than to Stewart Brown. A 34-year veteran of the YMCA, his tireless efforts on behalf of children and families are a wonderful testimony to the ideals of the George Williams College and Aurora University."

Stew is a Past President of NAFYR.

The McBurney Morse Chapter had 52 members and guests attend our Christmas luncheon Emceed by Bob Wilson, at the Vanderbilt YMCA in NYC on Dec 1. Our new Chair, Bob Soong, greeted 7 new members: Dick Batchelder, Dwight & Carol Carl-son, Volney Jean-Jacques & wife, Bonnie Mairs, and Paul Stone. We enjoyed music by member Rhys Ritter, a greeting from Jack Lund, CEO of the New York Y, and a great presentation on the YMCA's relationship to the UN by Bonnie Mairs. We toured the UN, led by two young volunteers from the Y's Interna-tional Branch.

Emergency Assistance Fund

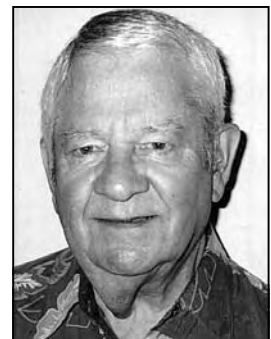

At the NAFYR reunion, two months ago in Min-neapolis, Dale Ventres, NAFYR EAF Chairman reported "top record con-tributions" from YMCA retirees to EAF since January 1, 2005. He said the devastating hurri-canes had little to do with these results, but felt that impact would come later.

EAF and the YMCA of USA have awarded hun-dreds of thousands of dollars to our breth-ren who experienced catastrophic loss in the hurricanes, with EAF tak-ing the lead in distributing these funds. Grateful thank you messages have brought prolonged tears.

Dale reported to the NAFYR board his goal for 2006 and 2007 is to re-quest EVERY NAFYR member to pledge a "significant, substan-tial amount" to the Emergency Assistance Fund and to pay that pledge in three or four pay-ments. He felt we could double or triple our gifts to EAF if that were done.
